The strike of the Reading hardware company moulders is still kept up, the men seeming determined to stand out for the increase, while the hardware company are as firm in their refusal to grant it. No offer of compromise has yet been made by either side; financial aid is being steadily received from the Philadelphia moulders, five hundred dollars having been received on Saturday, which is used to replenish the stock of provisions, &c., at the store which has been opened by the strikers.

The wedding of Miss Mary, only daughter of Joseph L. Pennock, of the firm of C. E. Pennock & Co., and Howard L. Mendenhall, of Baltimore, son of Colonel W. B. Mendenhall, of Phila., took place at the home of the bride, Coatesville, on Thursday evening. Over two hundred guests from New York, Philadelphia, Baltimor, Cincinnati, Harrisburg and Lancaster were present. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. G. M. Mendenhall, brother of the groom.

It is proposed to construct a railroad from a point on the Hanover Junction, Harrisburg and Gettysburg railroad, or the Berlin Branch road, to a point on the Harrisburg and Potomac railroad, in or near York Springs. It will practically be an extension of the Hanover and Baltimore road in the direction of Harrisburg, to secure a through line from the latter place to Baltimore independent of the Northern of the girls' high school at 8 o'clock to-morrow Centrai. Brandy as a Medicine. FULTON OPERA HOUSE.

The following article was voluntarily sent to Mr. H. E. Slaymaker, Agent for Reigart's Old Wine Store, by a prominent practising physi-cian of this county, who has extensively used the Brandy referred to in his regular practice. It is commended to the attention of those af-

Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

BRANDY AS A MEDICINE. This now much abused Alcoholic Stimulant 70 NIGHTS IN PHILADELPHIA ALONE. was never intended as a beverage, but to be BRILLIANT NEW MUSIC used as a medicine of great potency in the cure of some of the destructive diseases which sweep away their annual thousands of victims.
With a purely philanthropic motive we present to the favorable notice of invalids—especially those afflicted with that miserable disease Dyspepsia, a specific remedy, which is nothing more or less than

Brandy. The aged, with feeble appetite and more or less debility, will find this simple medicine, when used properly,

A Sovereign Remedy or all their ills and aches. Be it, however strictly understood that we prescribe and use but one article, and that is REIGART'S OLD BRANDY,

Sold by our enterprising young friend, H. E. SLAYMAKER. This Brandy has stood the test for years, and has never failed, as far as our experience extends, and we therefore give it the preference over all other Brandies, no matter with how many jaw-breaking French titles they are branded. One-fourth of the money that is yearly thrown away on various impotent dyspepsia specifies would suffice to buy all the Brandy to cure any such case or cases. In proof of the curative powers of Reigart's Old Brandy,

In cases of Dyspepsia, we can summon num bers of witnesses—one case in particular we cite:—
A hard-working farmer had been afflicted with an exhaustive Dyspepsia for a number of years; his stomach would reject almost every kind of food; he had sour eructations constantly—uo appetite—in fact, he was obliged to restrict his diet to crackers and stale bread, and as a beverage he used McGrann's Root Beer. He is a Methodist, and then, as now, preached at times, and in his discourses often declaimed carnestly against all kinds of strong declaimed carnestly against all kinds of strong drink. When advised to try Reigart's Old Brandy, In his case, he looked up with astonishment but after hearing of its wonderful effects in the cases of some of his near acquaintances, he at last consented to follow our advice. He used the Brandy faithfully and steadily; the first bottle giving him an appetite, and before the second was taken he was a sound man, with a stomach capable of digesting anything which he chose to cat. He still keeps it and uses a lit-tle occasionally; and since he has this medi-cine he has been of very little pecuniary bene-fit to the doctor.—A Practising Physician.

CONGRESS.

What is Going On at the Capital. WASHINGTON, April 19.-The Senate committee on railroads this morning decided by a vote of seven against four, to recommend the passage of a bill to extend the time for 'the completion of the Northern Pacific railroad six years. The measure that will be reported is Senator Windom's bill, amended on his own motion, so as to make the time of extension six years instead of ten, and to provide, in accordance with the policy already adopted by the company, that the agricultural lands within the odd numbered sections shall be sold to actual settlers at not exceeding $2.50 per acre. Another amendment will provide that the title to the lands thus sold by the company shall be conveyed directly from the government, but the amendment is to be so framed that this requirement shall not interfere with the company's agreements for its bonds and prefered stock. The formulation of the amendments agreed upon may delay the report to the senate for a day or two. The vote by which the amended bill was ordered to be reported is as follows: Ayes-Messrs. Ransom, Lamar, Grover, Windom, Davis, Teller and Saunders, 7. O'Leary has deposited $500 forfeit with Frank Queen. He says he expects Rowell, Brown or Hazel to accept.

The Late "Duel." The Newark (Del.) Ledger reporter claims to have seen the recent duel near that town between Dr. White and Mr. dams, of Philadelphia. According to that paper the pistols were loaded without balls, and when the principals fired the seconds hit each duelist with a hickorynut. This caused them to think they were shot, and both fell senseless to the ground. It took a great deal of brandy and water to revive them, and when the Ledger reporter, who was located in an adjoining tree, laughed at the scare, he was invited down to "take something." A Flourishing Temperance Society. The annual report of the New York Business Men's Temperance society shows that during the first year of the existence of the society nearly 25,000 pledges have been distributed. These pledges are divided into three classes: The red pledge of total abstinence; the white pledge not to drink during business hours, and the blue pledge not to treat or be treated. Of these the largest number distributed was of the blue pledge, of which nearly thirteen thousand were disposed of.

The Western Iron Trade. The following is from the Pittsburgh Post of Saturday : "The iron trade is still dull and some half-dozen rolling mills in the two cities have closed down in consequence. The jobbers decline to purchase, fearing that there will be still further decline in prices, but very few, if any, of the mills have orders. Notices have been posted up at the different mills notifying the unskilled workmen and others who are not governed by scales that a reduction of 10 to 15 per cent. in wages will be made. The puddling furnaces are still in operation at all the mills, as the manufacturers are willing to pile up muck bar. But many have grown weary of piling up finished iron, and they state that there will be a general suspension if the employes refuse to accept the reduction in wages. Just when the revival in the iron trade will come again no fellow can predict, and the iron men are
